Legislative Update

A paper copy of the final report / summary of various bills interest considered by the General Assembly during the 2017 Session was distributed. The General Assembly concluded its 2017 Session at midnight on Monday, April 10, 2017.

Ms. Gainer thanked Ms. Myers and other staff members who stepped up during the 2017 Legislative session as she balanced her position as Acting Co-Executive Director and her other agency responsibilities.

Ms. Gainer said that the MEMSOF budget forecast, completed by the Department of Legislative Hearings, projects the MEMSOF to be solvent through 2023. Also, the General Accounting Division of the Comptroller's Office has been identified as the entity that should be responsible for administering, accounting and completing the year-end reconciliation for the MEMSOF.

Ms. Gainer reported that MIEMSS has been tasked with providing two studies to the legislature: 1) to evaluate the impact on response times due to Emergency Department overcrowding and 2) to evaluate the financial impact of existing MIH programs and the potential for expansion.

Ms. Myers introduced Ms. Radov who was instrumental in the passing of SB 269 / HB 218 – Emergency Veterinary Care – Immunity from Liability bill that allows individuals other than veterinarians, specifically first responders, to provide aid to animals at the scene of an emergency and provides immunity from civil liability when doing so. Effective date: October 1, 2017.

A MSPAC helicopter was down on the helipad needing a replacement part and the elevator up to the helipad malfunctioned. Neither incident caused the alternate landing zone to be utilized.

Mr. DeVries thanked everyone for their informative report and expounded on the sustained cooperative excellence of leadership.

The RACSTC Gala will be held on April 22, 2017.

Dr. Alcorta thanked Ms. Doyle and the RACSTC “Go Team” for their dedication and response. He said the “GO Team” is a wonderful system asset and statewide resource.

Captain Konold reported that Major Lowman retired effective April 1, 2017. Captain Konold will be the Acting Commander of the Aviation Command until a replacement is named by the Superintendent.

The Flight Training Device (FTD) has been inspected by MSPAC personnel. Delivery of the FTD is being coordinated with Leonardo (formerly Agusta Westland) to plan the its arrival as the building that will house the FTD nears completion. This is important as the FTD needs to be located in a temperature and humidity controlled environment. Regarding the building, construction has begun. DGS reported at the last progress meeting that the expected construction completion date is currently late summer / early fall of 2017, assuming no additional and unexpected delays occur. The MSPAC is briefed every two weeks by DGS and they will provide additional information as it becomes available. Once the FTD is fully operational, it will be instrumental in reducing flight time on the AW-139 fleet.

The report sets forth a framework to more fully integrate the military and civilian trauma systems and includes recommendations to that end. The National Defense Authorization Act of 2017 directs military medical centers to develop civilian-military partnerships, such as participation in state and local trauma systems, to ensure military readiness to provide full spectrum of trauma care to service members. She said that, as a result, MIEMSS has been contacted by Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, an ACS verified Level II trauma center, regarding their interest in becoming part of the Maryland system. She said that MIEMSS would be exploring ways to partner with Walter Reed, including for trauma physician training, disasters, rehabilitation and research.

For example Dr. Westerland said that Walter Reed has great potential to become an incredible partner in our trauma system. A needs assessment and impact study on the community and other Maryland Trauma Centers should be conducted. Ms. Gainer asked Dr. Westerland to be involved in discussions.

Ms. Doyle suggested that other Trauma Centers may also wish to investigate the C-STARS program that was implemented at RASTC. She said the program has been a very successful military/civilian trauma integration that brings Airforce personnel to RACSTC for training and updating skills.
